21st April, 2023

Dear Children,

The Prince of Wales has asked me to thank you for your lovely letter, in connection with elephant conservation. I apologise for the delay in responding to you, but I do hope that you understand.

His Royal Highness, although unable to reply personally, shares your concerns about the impact of poaching on elephants and was most impressed to learn that you have written a story to spread awareness on this issue.

The Prince of Wales is passionate about wildlife conservation, and you may be interested to learn that he is Patron of Tusk, an African conservation charity, based in the United Kingdom. His Royal Highness, through his work with Tusk, aims to raise awareness and prevent the devastating impact of the illegal wildlife trade. Please find more information about Tusk on their website: <https://www.tusk.org/>.

His Royal Highness was touched that you should take the trouble to write as you did. It really was most thoughtful of you, and The Prince of Wales has asked me to send everyone at St. Joseph's Catholic Primary School his warmest thanks and very best wishes.

Yours sincerely,

Head of Royal Correspondence
